

Amusements.

CRAWFORD'S OPERA HOUSE.
STARR'S BIG COMEDY COMPANY
A GRAND SUCCESS!

TONIGHT: Bartley Campbell's Greatest Masterpiece. THE GALLEY SLAVE.

10, 20 and 30c

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

ONE NIGHT TUESDAY, FEB. 13

THE GREAT BIG SUCCESS,

EIGHT BELLS

INCORPORATING THE FAMOUS

BROS. BYRNE.

EVERYTHING NEW,

A New Fast Act Full of Thrilling Mechanical Effects.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

ONE NIGHT WEDNESDAY, FEB. 14.

2 Big Shows Combined—2

SAM T. JACK'S

Lily Clay Company

AND

Old Age and Youth Co.

(CONSOLIDATED)

A High Musical Comedy—Entertaining as an Operatic Bouche—The Home of the Elkhorn Singers in the Musical Business Represented by Sam T. Jack's Opera House, Chicago.

Regular prices.

AT THE THEATERS.

Orlin and Chester Crawford's Company Doing a Big Business.

It is a gratifying show that Orlin and Chester Crawford have brought to Topeka at a week's stand. The Stars' Big Comedy Company performed at the same time in a packed house.

Standing room only at a packed house yesterday evening when the Peacock Brothers' troupe came to "For a week."

In this Melodeon Williams in Jane G. Dunn's takes the leading part and Miss Carrie Lammot makes a fine "showing."

Tonight the Stanley Show, Bartley Campbell's big masterpiece will be given, and tomorrow "Hunted Down" will be presented.

The Stars' company under the direction of Malcolm Williams will return to Orlin's this week and will present the piece written at the end of this engagement or at the next stand. Malcolm Williams will interpret the part created by Mr. Byrnes in this piece for himself.

Mr. Williams appeared in the role for a week's engagement at the Victoria theater, Chicago, in June 1882. Stars' company are paying a royalty for the privilege of presenting the piece and will add it as a regular bill to their repertoire.

Right here.

At the Grand tonight Pritchard & West's "Eight Bell" in which the Byrne brothers are the leading attractions, will be given with all its new and original scenery, costumes and specialties. John Byrne as McEwane, makes a capital Irish comedian and his brother associates are decidedly clever in their special parts.

The last act of their comedy is reported to be one of the most startling ever seen on the pantomime stage.

Lily Clay's Comedy girls, under the management of Sam T. Jack's, is the attraction for to-morrow. "Old age and youth" and "the merits of all nations" are among the most attractive and brilliant specialties of their class before the footlights this season. This company has performed in Topeka on several previous occasions always to big houses. Sam T. Jack's promises a great many interesting scenes this season.

Hudson Brothers' "Womans" with new features will be a refreshing performance at the Grand opera house Friday and Saturday nights. Hudson Brothers is a good many. It represents the number of weakly, nervous women cured by "Viavi" during the last few years.

A QUARTER OF A MILLION

is indeed by its fruits, man by his work, "Viavi" by its cures.

"VIAVI"

has received the mark of popular approval. Its large sale and the praises of thousands of grateful women prove it. For full particulars consult our Health Book for Mothers and Daughters. Sent free.

Kansas Viavi Co., 3 COLUMBIAN BLDG., TOPEKA, KANSAS.

Main Office and Laboratory: San Francisco, Cal.

The headquarters of Associated Charities is in the Auditorium building on East 10th street. All applications for aid should be referred to Mr. Edgerton, our secretary, who will be found there.

BENJAMIN E. SMITH, President Associated Charities.

Neck band put on by the Peacock Brothers.

D. Holmes, druggist, 781 Kansas ave.

ARE GOING TOO FAR.

Rev. Mr. Dill and Mr. Owens the Colored Pastor.

WANT CIGAR STORES CLOSED

On the "Lord's Day." They Appear Before the Council and Make Their Demands in the Name of the Ministerial Union—Other Council Matters.

Action on the much apprehended and discussed Sunday closing ordinance was deferred last night. Mayor Harrison announced that he would approve it today unless the council wished to make some modifications, so the vote by which it was passed was reconsidered and the whole ordinance was referred back to the ways and means committee.

Rev. Mr. Dill, Rev. Mr. Porch and Rev. Mr. Owens were present to express the sentiments of the Ministerial Union.

Mr. Dill, the first speaker, asked that the Sunday closing be made general with no exceptions.

He said he came to see if we realize the importance of Sabbath observance and to qualify our action. But I see you make an exception in the case of the month of next eight months in the year.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.

It is said that men will not keep Saturday, but this plea is met by the fact that it is necessary to go to town

on Saturday for the necessities of

the day.